A New Look, A New Confidence

Our new school uniform brings a refreshing change that reflects smartness, elegance, and unity. With its neat design and graceful appearance, it enhances the confidence of every student and creates a strong sense of belonging. More than just a dress, it represents discipline and pride. As we wear it, let us carry ourselves with confidence and dignity, making this new look a true reflection of our best selves.

Poem

WORLD OF STARS

Stars shining like diamonds at night, When I look at them with my eyesight.
Always twinkling and glowing in clear night sky, Sparkling softly as the beautiful world sleeps by.
I always wonder how beautiful they are, Shining gently from a far.
The moon stood silent-bright and fair, A silent contest in the air.
They make my dreams more bright, And guide me through the night.
In their soft light, my thoughts can fly, Like little wishes and dreams in the sky.

The same walls now seemed to carry new expectations, and there was a quiet seriousness in the air. Along with the joy of meeting friends again, we also felt that this year would play an important role in shaping our future. A new school session is not just a change of class; it is a fresh beginning filled with new opportunities. Class 10 brings the responsibility of board exams, which makes every moment more valuable. Each subject now requires deeper understanding and consistent effort. It is no longer about last-minute preparation, but about building strong habits every day. What makes this new session truly meaningful is the chance to improve ourselves. Our past mistakes do not define us anymore; instead, they guide us to do better. By managing our time wisely, staying focused in class, and believing in our abilities, we can slowly move towards success. Challenges may come, but they help us grow stronger and more disciplined. Along with studies, this journey is also about discovering our true potential. By taking part in activities, facing our fears, and building confidence, we shape our personality in ways that go beyond textbooks. In the end, this new session is more than just another academic year—it is a new horizon filled with hope, growth, and endless possibilities.

भारत माँ के नाम

जहाँ नदियों में बहती है गंगा की पवित्र धारा,
जहाँ हर धर्म का सम्मान है, वो देश है हमारा।
कहीं लहलहाते खेत हैं, कहीं ऊँचे पर्वत विशाल,
वीर सपूतों के बलिदान से, यहाँ की मिट्टी है लाल।
गांधी की अहिंसा यहाँ, और तिलक का शंखनाद है,
कलम की ताकत यहाँ, और वीरों का उन्माद है।
सोने की चिड़िया कहलाने वाला, यह गौरवशाली देश है,
हर भारतीय के दिल में बसता, तिरंगे का परिवेश है।

United be your purpose, harmonious be your feelings, collected be your mind, in the same way as all the aspects of this universe exist in togetherness.

एक हमारा उद्देश्य हो, सुसंगत हमारी भावना हो।
एकत्रित हमारे विचार हो, जैसे सब कुछ इस विश्व में एकता में है ॥

A Poet Beyond Silence

Forugh Farrokhzad was not just a poet – she was a rebellion written in verse. Born in 1935 in Iran, she became one of the most powerful and controversial voices in modern Persian poetry. At a time when women were expected to remain silent, obedient, and modest, Forugh wrote boldly about desire, loneliness, betrayal, sensuality, faith, and freedom – openly, honestly, and without apology.

Her poetry was deeply personal. She did not hide behind metaphors to protect herself; instead, she used them to reveal her truth. Through collections like Captive and Another Birth, she transformed Persian literature by bringing raw and authentic female emotion to the forefront. In her works, love is not decorative – it is intense, wounded, and alive.

Reading Forugh Farrokhzad is not just exploring poetry; it is experiencing courage, honesty, and self-expression in its purest form. Her words continue to inspire readers to embrace their voice, break boundaries, and see the world with deeper sensitivity. If you seek poetry that speaks to the soul and challenges the ordinary, her works are truly worth discovering.

The Bird, Was Just a Bird

The bird chirped: What sunshine!
Ah, what aroma! Spring has come and I must seek my mate . . .

The bird unfolded off the ledge
into the air like a flown message.

The bird was small.
The bird was foolish.
The bird didn't read the papers.
The bird had no debts.
The bird didn't know people.

The bird in the air
high above flashing red lights
joyfully soared in oblivion, deliriously lived the sky's blue moments.

The bird,
ah,
was just a bird.
